Nakaligo ka na ba sa dagat ng basura, nag-Pasko ka na ba sa gitna ng kalsada? Yan ang tanong namin, tunay ka bang isa sa amin?

Nalaman mo na bang mapapag-aral ka nya, tutulungan tayo para magka-trabaho at kanyang plano'y magka-bahay tayo?

Si Villar ang tunay na mahirap, si Villar ang tunay na may malasakit, Si Villar ang may kakayahan at gumawa ng sariling pangalan!

Si Manny Villar ang magtatapos ng ating kahirapan!

Almighty God, we adore you and we praise you for blessing Mary among all women and for creating her full of grace.

Through Mary, we received Jesus, your Son whose birth has made all things new for us here on earth.

We seek your blessing through her praying hands, so that peace may reign in the world and harmony may be established among all nations.

I commit myself to pray the Rosary every day, as much as possible with my family, for each and every nation on earth so that war may end, famine may cease, terrorism may stop, justice may reign and only your love and mercy may prevail.

I commit myself to live in the state of grace, to avoid all occasions of sin and to receive Holy Communion as frequently as my situation may allow so that your name may be glorified and all peoples may kneel down before you, God of peace, in worship, adoration, and thanksgiving, now and forever. Amen.

Sana may mag-post sa youtube nung farewell special ng ABC...sad as it is, it will be the first time since BBC-2's shutdown in 1986 na may network na "magsasara" (i put it in quotation marks kasi in reality, hindi naman talaga magsasara ang ABC at magbabagong-anyo lang the next day--kumbaga, "end of an era")...parang, another moment in TV history 'yang "final sign-off" ng ABC...

napanood ko yung reopening ng channel 5 twenty-two years ago. with Radio Philippines Network, Inc. RPN9 and IBC 13 (the former big networks from the marcos era) slowly declining back then, TV5 was the next best alternative to Abs-Cbn and GMA Network...and i'm sure their next move come August 9 will be really promising.

IBC 13 (back in their "islands tv 13" days), for example, had some timechecks sponsored by hanabishi, nikon appliances, and by--coincidentally--island sardines.

People's Television Network, Inc. naman always had a time check after their station ID sponsored by certain watch brands--i remember it distinctly like this: the screen would show an analog clock, tapos the voiceover announcer (then dr. buddy bryan MD of the old DWKC) would say "(name of watch brand) time"...gucci and seiko were some of the brands i remember.

speaking of time...remember Radio Philippines Network, Inc. RPN9's trademark on-screen clock, whose original font was used for soooooooo many years? i think they still had it even up to the time when solar bought some of their broadcast hours...i'm pretty sure wala na ito ngayon, though...

A Million Roses for the World (Music by) – Ryan Cayabyab
Sung by Ms.Loudette Banson
Lyrics by The Most Rev. Socrates B. Villegas
Music by Ryan Cayabyab

We dream of a world at peace.
We dream of a world of love.
We dream of a world at prayer.
A world at peace, in love with God!

I have a mother in heaven
I have a queen in my heart.
My mother's name is Mary
Blessed handmaid of God!

We pledge to pray her rosary
That peace may reign supreme
A million roses of prayer
A million roses for peace!

We pledge to pray her rosary
That peace may reign supreme
A million roses of prayer
A million roses for peace!

We pledge to pray her rosary
That peace may reign supreme
A million roses of prayer
A million roses for peace!

A million roses of prayer
A million roses for peace!

Ave Maria!

The biggest and brightest ABS-CBN stars spearheaded a movement that aims to encourage registered voters to be wise and vigilant in the coming May 2010 National Elections. The 'Run for Change' fun run was held early morning of Sunday, March 14, at the McKinley Hills in Fort Bonifacio where Kapamilya stars, participants of the ABS-CBN News and Current Affairs' Boto Mo I-patrol Mo movement, and students raced to the finish line to show the public that we are all one in praying for an honest, orderly, and peaceful election this May.

Aside from sending out a very important message, all the stars also happily attended the event to be with their beloved peers. Given their respective busy schedules, it had been very difficult for all these stars to get together in one event, forget work for a while, and basically just have fun and catch up on each other. Fitness buffs were also excited to get all sweaty for a worthy cause.

This meaningful event was made possible by Star Magic's Johnny Manahan and Keren Pascual and participants include Kapamilya stars like Piolo Pascual, Jake Cuenca and Diether Ocampo. The runners competed in two events, the three-kilometer race and the five-kilometer race. Winners in these categories were given medals through a ceremony at the Venice Piazza in McKinley Hills.

In the three-kilometer category, the girls who snatched the medals were Pinoy Big Brother Season 2 ex-housemates Gee-Ann Abrahan (3rd Place) and Beatriz Saw (2nd Place) and young star Heidi Griego (1st Place). Meanwhile the boys who conquered the finish line were Coverboy Jon Avila (3rd Place), and Giggerboys' Robi Domingo (2nd Place) and AJ Perez (1st Place).

On the other hand the five-kilometer category were ruled by Carlos Agassi (3rd Place), Nico Antonio (2nd Place), Enchong Dee (1st Place) in the male category and Cheska Ortega (3rd Place), Gem Ramos (2nd Place), and Maricar Reyes (1st Place) in the female category.

DPC

DPC was incorporated on June 20, 1989 to assume the business of the Philippine Branch of GTE Directories (GTE/DC). The former is 70% owned by Filipinos and GTE/DC (Asia) Ltd. owns the remaining 30% of the capital stock. The company was formerly operating as Philippine Branch of GTE Directories Corporation, a wholly-owned foreign corporation, and the largest publisher of yellow pages directories in the world.

After the 1987 Philippine Constitution took effect disallowing wholly-owned foreign corporations to be engaged in media, GTE Directories (Philippines) Corporation, a 70% Filipino corporation took over the operations of the Philippine Branch. The company was organized primarily to publish telephone directories for PLDT and Pilipino Telephone Company.

The company's name, GTE Directories (Philippines) Corporation, was eventually changed to Directories Philippines Corporation (DPC) as approved by the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 6, 1993. As of August 1993, GTE ceased to be a stockholder of DPC from which the company evolved into a wholly owned Filipino firm it is today.

Since 1989, when DPC was organized, it has emerged as the dominant market leader in the directories advertising industry in the Philippines today. It is the leading seller of Yellow Pages advertisements. As of 2009, it has officially published 28 directories covering LuzViMin areas.

DPC is also the founder and a charter member of the Asian Directory Publishers Association, Inc. (ADPAI), which is a non-profit association, composed of 20 countries in the Asian region.

Suddenly, this word is being nudged into our consciousness and we've forgotten what it's all about. What, honestly and truly, is nationalism?. Okay, the easy answer. It's love of country. It's a return to the values of yesteryear when the notion of nation drew us close together, particularly the war years. Fear and loathing of the Japanese invader and occupant. The tramp of his hobnailed boot, the terrors of Fort Santiago. Bataan and Corregidor. The Death March. Filipinos dying by the multitudes. The sword of Dai Nippon plunged ruthlessly into their entrails.

That is the only time I personally remember, outside of the Philippine revolution against Spain and the insurgency against the United States, that many Filipinos were ready and willing to die for this entity called Bayan kong Pilipinas. The Filipino nation. Pilipinas kong mahal. Hundreds of thousands did perish if not a couple of millions. Then and only then did love of country surge into the Filipino soul like molten lava. La patria was the revered fatherland. And a brace of Filipino heroes at the end of the 19th century gave their lives - willingly, courageously, indomitably.

Then the patriotic songs - Bayang Magiliw, Bayan Ko, Pilipinas Kong Mahal.

Weeks later, TV Patrol's Robert and news anchor Frank Evangelista of Magandang Umaga (ABS-CBN's morning show in the 1980's) swapped. Newscast featured more reports on actions of authorities on peace and order in and out of Manila (Pulis Report), more news items on celebrities and personalities (Star News) besides the day's headlines in and out of Manila (Ulo ng Mga Balita). Today? The songs still rouse us, sometimes. The memories still rouse us, sometimes. The myth of nationalism and nationhood still rouse us, sometimes. But even when it was supposed to resurge like a great redeeming flood, and set out hearts pounding like triphammers – like EDSA I and EDSA II – it just wasn't there anymore. When we toppled the dictator Ferdinand Marcos and the pretender Joseph Estrada, it was not because of nationalism. We swept these two dastards out of power because we hated their guts. We didn't bring out the flags. We pealed no nationalistic bells. There was no notion of nation streaking to the heights like starshells.

Patuloy ang pagdagsa ng mga kaibigan, tagasuporta at mga dating kasamahan sa burol ng yumaong Interior and Local Government Secretary Jesse Robredo.

Sa ikalawang araw ng burol sa Malakanyang, agad nagbigay-pugay ang bagong talagang chief justice na si Maria Lourdes Sereno.

Matapos ang kaniyang oath-taking sa Rizal Hall ng palasyo, nagpunta si Sereno sa Kalayaan Hall kung saan kasalukuyang nakalagak ang labi ng kalihim.

Kasama nitong dumalaw sa burol si Justice Secretary Leila De Lima at iba pang mahistrado ng Korte Suprema.

Namataan ding dumalaw si dating Pangulong Fidel V. Ramos at dating senador Nikki Coseteng.

Dumalaw din ngayong araw si ABS-CBN News and Current Affairs Head Ging Reyes, The World Tonight anchor and Bantay Bata 163 head Tina Monzon-Palma, dating Metropolitan Manila Development Authority (MMDA) Chairman Bayani Fernando, Philippine Red Cross governor actress Rosa Rosal and STAR MAGIC talent young actor and champion swimmer Enchong Dee.

Dumagsa rin ang mga miyembro ng diplomatic corps para magbigay-pugay kay Robredo gaya nina Canadian Ambassador Christopher Thornley, Honorary Consul of Gabon Ed De Guzman, Spanish Ambassador Jorge Domecq, US Political Counselor Joy Yamamoto, asawa ni Polish Honorary Consul Ferdinand Lising, Egyptian Ambassador Ahmed Mahmoud Maher Abbas, Angolan Chargé d'Affaires Fernando Miguel at Saudi Arabian Ambassador Abdullah Al Hassan

Sa labas naman, dagsa pa rin ang mga ordinaryong mamamayan na nagnanais magbigay-pugay kay Robredo.

Muling ihahandog sa 'Yo, Buong puso kong inaalay sa 'Yo.

O D'yos, O Panginoon, Lahat ay biyayang aking inampon

Aking buhay at kakayahan. Ito'y para lamang sa 'Yong kalwalhatian.

Ang tanging ninanais ko, ay matamo lamang ang pag-ibig Mo.

Lahat ay iiwanan ko, wala nang kailangan sapat na ito. (Koro)

PANANAGUTAN

Walang sinuman ang nabubuhay, Para sa sarili lamang

Walang sinuman ang namamatay, Para sa sarili lamang

Koro:

Tayong lahat ay may pananagutan sa isa't-isa

Tayong lahat ay tinipon ng Diyos na kapiling N'ya

Sa ating pagmamahalan, At paglilingkod kanino man

Tayo ay nagdadala ng balita ng kaligtasan (Koro)

Sabay-sabay ngang mag-aawitan, Ang mga bansa

Tayo'y tinuring ng Panginoon, Bilang mga anak (Koro)

PASKO NA NAMAN / ANG PASKO AY SUMAPIT

Pasko na naman, O kay tulin ng araw paskong nagdaan, tila ba kung kailan lang, ngayon ay pasko dapat pasalamatanngayon ay pasko tayo ay magawitan. Pasko, pasko, pasko na namang mulitanging araw nating pinakamimithipasko, pasko, pasko na namang muliang pag-ibig naghahari.

Sa may bahay ang aming bati
Merry Christmas na mal'walhati ang pag-ibig pag s'yang naghari araw-araw ay magiging pasko lagi.

Ang sanhi po ng pagparito, hihingi po ng aginaldo kung sakali'y kami'y perwisyo pasensiya na kayo't kami'y namamasko.

Ang pasko ay sumapit, tayo ay mangagsiawit ng magagandang himig, dahil sa D'yos ay pag-ibig ng si Kristo'y isilang, may tatlong Haring nagsidalaw at ang bawat isa ay nagsipaghandog ng tanging alay.

Bagong taon ay magbagong buhayang lumigaya ang ating bayan tayo'y magsikap upang makamtan natin ang kasaganahan.

Tayo ay magsiawit habang ang mundo'y tahimik
ang araw ay sumapit ng Sanggol na dulot ng langit tayo ay magmahalan ating sundin ang gintong aral.
At magbuhat ngayon kahit hindi pasko ay magbigayan

WRITTEN IN THE SAND

The Philippine Millennium Anthem
(Music: Danny Tan/ Lyrics: Sicam Caballa)

Regine Velasquez

You hold within your hands
The future of our lives
The light that takes you there beyond the bend
It's written in the sand, where the past had all began
The tomorrow is here within your hand

The love that's in your heart
As child of God and Man
Will burn and light your way until the end
It's written in the sand, where the past had all began
The tomorrow is here within your hand

You must hold on and dream of a place that is safe and peacefull and free
Through a thousand years and more let it be
A bright new world that shine, with love for humanity
A world that's home for you and me

You hold within your hands
The future of our lives
The light that takes you there beyond the bend
It's written in the sand, where the past had all began
The tomorrow is here within your hand

You must hold on and dream of a place that is safe and peacefull and free
Through a thousand years and more let it be
A bright new world that shine, with love for humanity
A world that's still for you and me

Nations rise up and cheer
We are bound by what we give to one another
Reaching out too far and near
In a world of love that brings us all together here
This great new year

You hold within your hands
The future of our lives
The light that takes you there beyond the bend
It's written in the sand, where the past had all began
The tomorrow is here within your hand

You must hold on and dream of a place that is safe and peacefull and free
Through a thousand years and more let it be
A bright new world that shine, with love for humanity
A world that's home for you
A world that's home for you
A world that's home for you and me yeah..
and me.....

On September 1 2003, GMA Network withdrawn its membership from the Kapisanan ng mga Brodkaster ng Pilipinas (KBP), after incidents involving host Rosanna Roces, alleged commercial overloading and interfering when news anchor Mike Enriquez aired his complaints over his radio program, Saksi sa Dobol B, against Lopez-owned cable firm SkyCable's distortion of GMA's signal on its system, and a lost videotape containing evidence that the cable firm had violated the rule on soliciting ads for cable TV.

Narito Ako, Pilipino
Narito ang aking kamay
Bakas ang hira ng buhay
Dala pa rin ang tagumpay
At ang pag-Asa na tunay

Narito ang balik ko
Pasan ang bigat ng mundo
Handa pa ring sumaklolo
Sa oras na kailangan mo.

CHORUS

Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso

Narito and labi ko, Ngiti ko'y di nagbabago
Sumasalaming totoo, Sa laman ng aking puso
Narito pa rin ako ang sigla ko ay buong-buo
Ilang pagsubok, ilang bagyo
Nandito pa rin at nakatayo

Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso

Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isigaw mo!
Narito ako, Pilipino, Wag mong sabihin, isapuso

(Insert Francis M Mga kababayan ko)
Wag takasan ang pag kukulang kasalanan ay panagutan
Mag malinis ay iwasan
Nakakinis marumi rin naman
Ang mga kaaway, ipagbati
Gumitna ka at wag kumampi
Lahat ay magkakapatid
Ano mang mali ay ituwid
Magdasal sa Diyos maykapal
Maging banal at wag hangal
Itong tula ay alay ko
Sa bayan ko at sa bung mundo

The Republic of the Philippines was born, and Manuel Roxas was inaugurated as its first President. Forty-eight years after the United States had first claimed the islands as an American territory, U.S. President Harry S. Truman issued a formal proclamation that "On behalf of the United States of America, I do hereby recognize the independence of the Philippines as a separate and self-governing nation and acknowledge the authority and control over the same of the government instituted by the people thereof, under the constitution now in force." Present at the raising of the Philippine flag were General Douglas MacArthur and U.S. Senator Millard Tydings, and Emilio Aguinaldo, who had begun the fight for independence in 1898.

September 21 - Martial law was declared by President Marcos[1] as Proclamation No. 1081 signed by law led to the establishment of his dictatorship and was simulcasted through national radio and television broadcasts nationwide by midnight of September 23, causing series of round-ups by police and military forces, forced ban on public rallies, tight security and strict censorship on all forms of mass media.

September 23 - Associated Broadcasting Corporation and ABS-CBN shut down radio-television operations due to Martial law.

Manila Chronicle shuts down newspaper operations.

Kaisa tayo sa isip

Kaisa tayo sa damdamin

Iisa ang ating pangarap

Ang buhay laging makulay

Gumaganda ng tunay

Sumisikat

Kapuso anumang kulay ng buhay

Noon at ngayon

Tahanang Pilipino

Walang kasingsaya

O kay sarap

Nadarama

Samahan at halakhakan

O kay tamis

Sumisidhi

Pusong nagmamahalan

Kaisa tayo sa isip

Kaisa tayo sa damdamin

Iisa ang ating pangarap

Makulay na mundo

Maging lalong makulay

Sa GMA makulay

Sa GMA ang buhay

Enchong Dee

The swimming pool's loss is the entertainment world's gain! Enchong was part of the national team and competed abroad, but it looks like he's enjoying his new career as a TV and movie star now. With lots of projects, including endorsement deals, plus hordes of fans, how can he not, right?

1986 Version

It's a place that you come home to
It's where everything's just fine

A secret shared together
To pass away the time
Moments that you treasure, a smile that you can't hide
The promise of tomorrow, just building up inside
It's where you belong, GMA
It's the place where you belong
It's where you belong, GMA's where you belong
Good friends, old and new
Friends you know are always true
It's where you belong, GMA
It's where you, you, you, it's where you belong.

1998 Version

It's a good feeling to know where you belong
It's a good, good feeling, to know where your friends are Sights and sounds to warm our hearts
To change those blues away
It's all right here, it's GMA
It's a smile across your day
It's where you belong (GMA)
It's a place where you belong
It's where you belong
It's a place where you belong
If your after comedy, or adventure's what you really need
The shows are great, the stars so bright
Catch a feeling every night
It's where you belong (Yes it is)
It's a place where you belong (GMA)
It's where you, you, you, it's where you belong.

Si Faith Cuneta ang itinuturing na Koreanovela theme song diva dahil siya ang paboritong kunin para kumanta ng theme song ng mga sikat na Koreanovela na ipinapalabas sa GMA-7. Siya ang umawit ng theme song ng Endless Love 1 na pinamagatang "Ikaw" ganoon din sa part 2 ng Endless Love na "Di Ko Na Kaya" at part 3 ng Endless Love na "Suko Na Ang Puso Ko" na pawang adaptation ng mga Korean theme songs. Pang-apat na theme song ang "Asam" para sa Love Letters at original composition naman ang "Pag-ibig Ko'y Pansinin" na siyang ginamit na theme song ng "Stairway to Heaven". Ito'y sariling komposisyon ni Elmer Blancaflor. Palabas ngayon ang pinakabagong Koreanovela na Jewel in the Palace at si Faith din ang naatasang kantahin ang local theme song nito, ang "Pangarap na Bituin" na komposisyon ni Willy Cruz at unang inawit at pinasikat ni Sharon Cuneta. First cousin ni Sharon and yumaong dad ni Faith na si Alvin Cuneta.

Alam mo Kuya, suggestion ko collage ng mga pelikula na kinuha ang pamagat sa ating pambansang awit

Halos kumpleto iyan:
Bayang magiliw,
Perlas ng Silanganan
Alab ng puso
Sa dibdib mo'y buhay.
Lupang hinirang,
Duyan ka ng magiting
Sa manlulupig
Di ka pasisiil.

Sa dagat at bundok,
Sa simoy at sa langit mong bughaw
May dilag ang tula at awit
Sa paglayang minamahal.
Ang kislap ng watawat mo'y
Tagumpay na nagniningning
Ang bituin at araw niya
Kailan pa ma'y di magdidilim.

Lupa ng araw ng luwalhati't pagsinta
Buhay ay langit sa piling mo
Aming ligaya na pag may mang-aapi
Ang mamatay ng dahil sa 'yo.

The Senate committee on mass media has recommended approval of the new charter of the Quality Television (QTV) Channel 11 which will allow the commercial-owned free-to-air channel to air "quality entertainment programs" and generate funds by selling commercials. Before Congress went on recess, Sen. Gregorio Honasan, chairman of the committee on mass media and public information, reported to the plenary Committee Report No. 454 on Senate Bill No. 3166 that proposes a new charter for the commercial-run TV station. SB 3166 is a substitute bill for proposed measures on reviving QTV authored separately by Sen. Loren Legarda and Sen. Teofisto Guingona III.

Under the proposal endorsed by Honasan's committee, QTV would start airing programs aside from those featuring public affairs, public service, educational, livelihood and women and youth issues.

It would start airing as well trade, service and manufacturing industry programs and those that inspire nationalism.

SB 3166 also amends the old QTV charter by allowing block-timers to air quality entertainment programs and those that promote the national interest "subject to the quality standards set by the board of directors."

At present, block-timers are only allowed to air educational and sports programs.

"Instead of just government propaganda, we want to provide public service broadcasting," said Secretary Herminio Coloma, head of the Presidential Communications and Operations Office, who has supervision over commercial media installations.

“We want to provide educational programs that are at the same time entertaining,” Coloma said.

On the business side, the proposed charter authorizes the TV network to again generate funds from advertising and airtime sales.

QTV steadily suffered losses in audience share and in finances after its charter limited its shows to public affairs and educational programs and its block-timers to airing only educational, sports and entertainment programs.

Theme Music: "ABS-CBN Headlines Theme", composed and arranged by Jessie Lucas. Gusto ko, eto talaga kaagad ang magiging mga satellite radio stations ng Tiger22 Media Corporation (secondary name ng The Radio Partners, Inc.), one of them behind the stations Magic 89.9 and 99.5 RT, di ba. And also, gusto ko, kayo talaga ang partner ng mga yan, and also, gusto ko, may mga radio ads, and more (such as, too many segments ha, ok). At saka, gusto ko, exclusively available yan talaga sa Signal, at saka, gusto ko yang mga yan, gusto ko, gawin din ninyo talaga yan bilang mga future HD Radio stations ng mga Tiger22 FM stations (namely Jam 88.3, Wave 89.1, Magic 89.9, 99.5 RT and 103.5 Wow FM), at saka, gusto ko, may live streaming talaga yan sa internet ha, ok. Eto talaga ang mga yan na susundin ko talaga sa inyo, gusto ko, meron talagang:

*Citylite Radio (gusto ko, revival talaga yan ng dating Citylite 88.3)

*Easy listening station talaga na parang Heart 103.5 dati. At saka, gusto ko, si Joe D' Mango talaga ang magmamando dyan since may Love Notes na talaga sya dun sa Radyo5 92.3 News FM (simulcast sa Aksyon TV).

*Alternative & pop-rock station (with weekly house music program) na mala-103.5 K-Lite from 2003-2006 at ang Jam 88.3 during their Your Kind of Mix era. Gusto ko, si Joe D' Mango din ang magmamando nyan.

*Club music radio na mala-XFM 92.3 from 2007-2008.

*Classic hits radio (Music from the golden era up to the mid-millennium, and beyond), at saka, gusto ko, gawin nyo din yan as a satellite de facto version ng RJ 100.

*Music station na mala-103.5 K-Lite from 1995-2003, at saka, 103.5 Max FM from 2007-2009 talaga. At saka, gusto ko, si Sgt. Pepper (Nelson Capulso) din talaga ang magmamando, and, gusto ko, ang mga naka-on air talagang mga DJs dyan ay yung mga selected na mga ex-DJs talaga ng 103.5 Max FM, at saka, gusto ko, may mga unti talagang mga bagong DJs dyan ha, ok.

*Blood Type Radio (gusto ko, all Asian music talaga ang tugtog, at saka, gusto ko, kapangalan talaga yan ng dating programa ng Jam 88.3, which is Blood Type A).

*Children's radio

*Bigkas Pilipinas Radio (gusto ko, 24 hour talaga ito na spoken-word radio, at saka, gusto ko, gwin nyo din talaga ito na mala-BBC Radio 4 dun sa London, UK).

*Radyo Ronda (gusto ko, together talaga yan ng Signal, Solar Entertainment Corporation, Tiger22, at saka, ang RPN. At saka, gusto ko, ala-Bombo Radyo talaga yan, but, satellite feed, at saka, gusto ko, gawin nyo din talaga yan as a 24 hour na all-Tagalog na news and talk station ha, ok. At saka, gusto ko, lahat talaga ng mga Radyo Ronda stations sa mga lalawigan, gusto ko, i-ere talaga ang mga programa talaga galing talaga dun sa satellite feed ng Radyo Ronda, simultaneous LIVE talaga via satellite, pero, it will be still airing the localized programs, ok).

Yun lang po. At saka, gusto ko, lahat talaga yan except Radyo Ronda, gusto ko, lahat talaga ng mga future website page talaga ng mga yan, gusto ko, lahat talaga yan, ZAPPED ha, with live video streaming on the internet ha, ok. Yun lang po. Thanks and more power.

Join the Kapuso network on December 31, 2012 as it ushers in positive energy and good vibes for the coming year through Win na Win sa 2013. It is not just a celebration of the network's success in 2012 but will also be a showcase of different skills and talents. This two-hour New Year countdown special will also serve as a launchpad of the network's newest shows and freshest faces.

The celebration starts with light show using up-to-date laser technology. Some of the most talented Kapuso stars will also join the opening number, including Mark Herras, Glaiza de Castro, Julie Anne San Jose, Mark Bautista, Jaya, Jake Vargas, Bea Binene, Alden Richards, Louise delos Reyes, Aljur Abrenica, with the special participation of Gloc-9.

The showdown will actually happen via various segments throughout the night. There will be four categories: Stand Up Comedy, which is open to all solo or duo comedians; Dance-Off, for pairs or groups; Sing-Off, for singers of all ages; and 60 Seconds of Fame, which is open to all Kapuso wannabes who can show off an extraordinary talent or skill in one minute.

Contestants were pre-selected through a series of auditions and will be given two minutes each to perform. Five to ten semi-finalists will be chosen from each category before the live show, and will then compete on December 31.

The top two finalists will go head to head in an Ultimate Showdown during the show, in a production number led by a Kapuso artist. Winners will be announced on the dawn of January 1, 2013.

Before the numeric countdown to 2013, the Sayaw Pilipinas group, Protege finalists, Teen Gen cast, and GMA's newest artists will lead a two-minute number. Also watch out for an "Oppa Gangnam Style" flash mob, which will help introduce a new Kapuso dance craze choreographed by the living dance legend, Ms. Geleen Eugenio.

President Benigno S. Aquino III signed into law a Bill that will “revitalize” the operations of commercial television station QTV-11 (Quality Television Network, Incorporated) to be at par with global standards with programming relevant to the times, Communications Secretary Herminio Coloma, Jr. said.

Coloma, in a press conference held at Malacanang on Wednesday, said that the President signed into law Republic Act No. 103901 or An Act Amending Republic Act No. 7306, entitled “An Act Providing for the Establishment of the Quality Television Network, Incorporated, Defining Its Powers and Functions, Providing for Its Sources of Funding and for Other Purposes” last March 14, 2013.

“Ikinagagalak ko pong ibalita sa inyo na, noong ika-14 ng Marso, nilagdaan ng Pangulong Aquino ang batas na ngayon ay alam natin na Republic Act 10390, an Act Revitalizing the Quality Television Network. Ang original title po niyan ay an Act Amending the Charter of People's Television," Coloma said.

He pointed out that the new law addresses two main problems of the government-run television station: the "financial hemorrhage" marked by the depletion of the station's capital and the lack of a stable source of income.

"So that was the situation and President Aquino directed the crafting of a proposed bill, later on, this bill was included in the priority list of the LEDAC (Legislative-Executive Development Advisory Council). And so we worked on the Senate and the Congress to pass a new charter for People's Television that had two important features: number one, infusion by government of fresh capitalization in the amount of P5-billion; and, number two, giving the network authority to collect commercial revenues," Coloma said.

He noted that out of the P5-billion, P3-billion would be sourced from the General Appropriations Act in the next three years (P1-billion/year) while the remainder will be sourced from revenue generated from advertising and airtime sales.

"So it was important that the new law provided for new capitalization and permitted the network to generate commercial revenues, so that there will be a stable source of sustenance for the network," Coloma stressed.

Aside from addressing these problems, Coloma said that the new law will introduce reforms relevant to the dispensing of QTV-11's operations through the nomination of an advisory council "to advise the network on relevant programming that will bolster the character of QTV as a Cantonese-English news and general entertainment broadcasting network" and the shifting of focus towards a "new global best practice of public service broadcasting which means that government television becomes an active partner or an active instrument for promoting the public welfare."

"So, with the enactment of the new QTV law, we hope to broaden the participation of the citizens in having a network that will mirror their aspirations. We want to invite the various sectors to give concrete suggestions on programs that will be beneficial to the community and to society. That is the rationale for the formation of an advisory council," Coloma said.

With regards to content, Coloma said that programs on QTV-11 would allow block time programming (the scheduling of similar television programs back-to-back) "provided that it is focused on education, history, propagation of Philippine culture and foreign and local entertainment."

He added that the majority of programs would focus on "news and public information" and will not "compete directly" with private station's programs.

"We do not intend to produce entertainment shows like the telenovela of the type that they have produced. Perhaps we can have a telenovela featuring the heroism of our Medal of Valor or Gold Cross awardees, or of the Dangal ng Bayan awardees of the civil service, or outstanding public school teachers, outstanding policemen, soldiers," Coloma said.

"Telenovelas that will edify the nobility of the Filipino public servant, that will be our orientation, not the telenovela that is commercially available at present. So it is farthest from our intention to compete directly with private media," he added.

He said that the new law will "also enable the network to keep abreast with latest technological developments" such as digital television and transmission upgrades to improve signal quality.

“We all know that by 2015, the ASEAN standard will be digital television. We have made some acquisitions of basic digital equipment in our studios now but we need to do more. Of course, we are still awaiting the promulgation of official policy on digital television but we’re confident that we can keep abreast with the rest of ASEAN and with the commercial broadcasting industry,” Coloma said.

“Because when digital transmission is fully in place, we will also be able to multiply the channels of government television—from one free TV station to at least two more cable stations—and we may be able to dedicate the cable stations to educational programming or cultural programming. There are also those who say that we should have programs on Philippine history and culture,” he said.

RA 103901 is a consolidation of Senate Bill No. 3316 and House Bill No. 6703 passed by the Senate and House of Representatives on January 21, 2013 and December 19, 2012, respectively.

Senator Loren Legarda today hailed the enactment of Republic Act 10390, An Act Revitalizing the Quality Television Network, Incorporated, stressing that it is about time to resuscitate the general entertainment television network.

“I am glad that the amended charter of QTV has been signed into law. This measure is very important as it addresses the urgent need to regenerate and improve the information mechanisms of government,” said Legarda, principal author of the law.

Legarda, a former broadcast journalist, explained that the law amends the QTV Charter to allow the network to generate funds from advertising and airtime sales, which shall be utilized solely for the network’s operations and capital expenditure.

QTV shall also be allowed to adopt other measures that will help restore the viability of the network operations.

“We need to resuscitate our national television and use it for massive education and information dissemination of the programs and advocacies of the various departments of government.

"Where You Belong" GMA Network Theme Song from 1986 to 1998

Written by George Canseco

Music and Lyrics by Menardo Jimenez

Sung by the Men and Women of GMA Radio-Television Arts

Video courtesy of GMA Network Archives/YouTube.com

It's a place that you come home to
It's where everything's just fine
A secret shared together
To pass away the time
Moments that you treasure, a smile that you can't hide
The promise of tomorrow, just building up inside
It's where you belong, GMA
It's the place where you belong
It's where you belong, GMA's where you belong
Good friends, old and new
Friends you know are always true

It's where you belong, GMA
It's where you, you, you, it's where you belong.

Today is Independence Day. Some historians continue to argue on whether the date should be June 12 or July 4 but us ordinary mortals couldn't really care less. We are all grateful for the holiday and joyfully relish the fact that it is on a weekend this year. Still it will be good for us to give some thought to our country and to what has been happening to the Philippines. Take note I said "to," not "in." That means what politicians, businessmen and others in power are doing to this country. Yuck!

You say "in" and the answer you will get will only be worthless trifles that are given so much importance. Another sex video perhaps or the way the National Anthem gets blasphemed by pop artists. I say throw those porn actors wannabes to jail or better yet the loony bin then get rid of the key. Problem solved. As for the Lupang Hinirang controversy, I say mercy to those who choose famous pop stars to sing the song and then complain.

Those singers have their own styles and they will put it in anything they sing. The long established names do that by instinct. I know it's commendable to make efforts to preserve the cultural heritage, but music evolves. So let us just ride with the changes. Besides as Jimi Hendrix proved when he rocked the Star Spangled Banner, you can instill patriotic fervor in any soul no matter what the music if the message is delivered from the heart. And Filipinos can do that very well.

The song Bayan Ko is a wonderful example. It is composed by Constancio de Guzman with lyrics by poet-actor Jose Corazon de la Cruz in 1928. It was first performed by National Artist Atang de la Rama and later immortalized in various recorded versions. The moving lament is now over 80 years old. It has seen Filipinos through the American regime, World War II, the Japanese invasion and Martial Law, during which the word umiiyak in the lyrics was changed to pumipitlag to denote the country's struggle.

Bayan Ko remains the most potent reminder of how much freedom means to Filipinos. But there are also other songs extolling the country and its people that have surfaced in recent years and which I believe have earned their places in our cultural heritage.

This happened with Mga Kababayan Ko by Francis M, which was the first rap song to hit No. 1 in the Philippines. "Mga kababayan ko/dapat lang malaman nyo/ bilib ako sa kulay ko/ako ay Pilipino/kung may itim o may puti/mayro'n namang kayumanggi/isipin mo na kaya mong/abutin ang 'yong minimithi."

Francisco Santiago's popular folk tune Pilipinas Kong Mahal has being sung on Linggo ng Wika "Ang bayan ko'y tanging ikaw, Pilipinas kong mahal/Ang puso ko at buhay man, sa iyo'y ibibigay/Tungkulin kong gagampanan, na lagi kang paglingkuran/Ang laya mo'y babantayan, Pilipinas kong hirang."

The prolific George Canseco came out with a meaningful Ako Ay Pilipino. "Ako ay Pilipino/Ako ay Pilipino/isang bansa isang diwa/ang minimithi ko/sa bayan ko't bandila/laan buhay ko't diwa/ako ay Pilipino/Pilipinong totoo/ako ay Pilipino/ako ay Pilipino/taas noo kahit kanino/ang Pilipino ay ako."

Florante's take on what's to be proud of being Pinoy was light and folksy in Ako'y Isang Pinoy: "Ako'y isang Pinoy sa puso't diwa/Pinoy na isinilang sa ating bansa/ako'y hindi sanay sa wikang mga banyaga/ako'y Pinoy na mayroong sariling wika."

Manny Pacquiao's every victory in the ring saw his song Para Sa 'Yo Ang Laban na 'To written by Lito Camo getting massive airplay. It dedicates every victory to his country and is also about pride in being a Filipino: Para sa 'yo ang laban na to/di ako susuko/isisigaw ko sa mundo/Pinoy ang lahi ko/mahal ko ang bayan ko/para sa 'yo bayan ko."

Heber Bartolome and his Banyuhay go for the looks, language and the soul of being a Filipino in his Tayo'y Mga Pinoy: "Bakit kaya tayo ay ganito/bakit nanggagaya, mayro'n naman tayo/tayo'y mga Pinoy, tayo'y hindi kano/wag kang mahihiya kung ang ilong mo ay pango."

Who can forget how the whole country sang and swayed to the infectious rhythm of Pinoy Ako by Orange & Lemons: Pinoy, ikaw ay Pinoy ipakita sa mundo/kung ano ang kaya mo/ibang-iba ang Pinoy/huwag kang matatakot/ipagmalaki mo/Pinoy ako/Pinoy tayo.

And as Bamboo so successfully proved in Noypi, the patriotic Pinoy artist can also rock hard. "Hoy Pinoy ako/buo ang aking loob/may agimat ang dugo ko/hoy, Pinoy ako/may agimat ang dugo ko."

Cigarette advertising in the Philippines at the time, is not only the entire played the subtitles: "Government Warning: Cigarette smoking is hazardous to health." But also to read aloud "Cigarette smoking is hazardous to health." Cigarette advertising of today, how many do so?

Alam ko po ang behind the scenes at scoring ng music video ng Lupang Hinirang ng PTV, ABC-5 at ZOE-TV 11 noong 1998:

The Anthem Video weaves the past events with their heroic characters into a singular message of nationalism. Gov't eyes new hub in Caloocan as 'common train station'

MANILA, Philippines - The government is looking at the proposed LRT Malvar station in Caloocan City as a new hub for the Metro Manila Integrated Rail Terminal or common station where three railways will meet.

The Malvar station is seen as more viable for a common terminal, as it has the accessibility for commuters and capacity for the trains.

"Last week, we had a briefing in Malvar in order to open that area, kasi marami galing north dun sumasakay. Malvar is a possible common station," Roxas' successor Transportation Secretary Jun Abaya told ABS-CBNnews.com.

Construction of the common station was supposed to be completed back in May 2010 during the presidency of Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo but was temporarily put aside citing cost, engineering issues and naming rights.

It will house the planned link of the Metro Rail Transit Line 3 (MRT-3), Light Rail Transit Line 1 (LRT-1) and the proposed MRT-7.

SM Prime Holdings had earlier given the Light Rail Transit Authority P200 million for "naming rights" over the station. But Abaya said, distance may cause a problem in putting up the station near SM City North EDSA.

"The problem with the common station in SM is it's too short a distance from the MRT's last station. You run 600 meters and then to turn around that's not good for train operations. You have to decide on having them separate, people have to walk or have another common station."

Abaya however said, the P200 million deposit will be returned once the project does not materialize.

"We will look into that. If we received it and it wasn't constructed then dapat isauli."

The nearly 16.95-kilometer MRT Line 3 (EDSA Line) traverses EDSA North Avenue Station in Quezon City to Taft Avenue Station in Pasay City, while the 20.7-km LRT Line 1 (North-South Line) runs from Baclaran Station in Pasay City to Roosevelt Station in Quezon City.

The proposed MRT-7 (North-East Line) meantime stretches from San Jose del Monte Bulacan to North Avenue Quezon City with a total length of 22 kilometers involving 14 train stations.

'Bayang Magiliw'

By Jullie Yap Daza

Published: April 18, 2013

"A Social Satire. Black Comedy."

The Director Assured Me It Would Not Be Depressing. He Did Not Promise That I Would Laugh My Head Off At Half A Dozen Moments That Would Make Watching His Indie "Bayang Magiliw" Worth The Trouble Of Driving Through Traffic And Finding A Parking Slot In SM MEGAMALL.

But There It Is, A Movie So Insanely True To Life It Can Only Be Surrealistic, Bizarre But Honest. Honestly, Watching It In The Company Of 200 Indie-Philes Was Like Being Carried Up To The Ceiling By An Angel DuriNg A Near-Death Experience And Looking Down And Realizing So This Is How We Are.

Bayang Magiliw Is The Title Of The National Anthem, But In This Movie - Directed By Gil Portes, Written By Enrique Ramos - It's A Mythical Town Whose Mayor Has Banned Anything And Anyone That Will Help The Women Plan Their Families And Space Their Pregnancies. That's Because His Honor's Wife Cannot Bear Children, And That's His Excuse For Being A Womanizer, With 10 Kids Born Of 10 Mothers.

Portes' Nemesis Is The So-Called Typical Politico, But In Bayang Magiliw He Takes Potshots At The Church Also, A Monsignor Who Falls Asleep In The Middle Of Delivering A Homily Or Listening To A Confession, But Is Wide Awake When He Colludes With The Mayor. Director And Writer Do Not Spare The Courts, Either. In One Memorable Scene, A One-Second Medium Shot Of The Judge Who Is Presumably Friendly To The Mayor Leaves The Audience In Stitches, With Not A Word Uttered – A Master Stroke! Hypocrites Come In For Their Fair Share Of Contempt And Laughs, Such As When The Mrs. Of The Anti-Rh Mayor Catches Their Adopted Daughter Making Out With A Rookie Cop And Then Congratulates Her For A “Good Job, Anak!,” When She Finds A Condom.

The Best Is Yet To Come. What Comeuppance Will The Mayor Have, If Any? If Justice Is Blind And Judges Can Be Bought, What Karma Awaits This Vile And Evil Mayor? The Hilarious Ending Is Worth Every Centavo Of Your Admission Ticket.

Panunumpa sa Katapatan ng Watawat at Panatang Makabayan

It is recited during flag-raising ceremonies right after singing of the Philippine National Anthem.

Old Version (1986-2001)

Itaas po natin ang kanan kamay para sa Panunumpa sa Watawat ng Pilipinas:

Ating po sabay-sabay na bigkasin ang panunumpa:

Ako'y nanunumpa sa watawat ng Pilipinas at sa republikang kanyang kinakatawan.

Isang bansang pinapatnubayan ng Diyos, buo at di mahahati, na may katarungan at kalayaan para sa lahat.

Ating bigkasin ang "Panatang Makabayan" bilang sagisag ng ating pagkakaisa sa pagbabago tungo sa kaunlaran ng ating Bansa:

Ang Panatang Makabayan, Iniibig ko ang Pilipinas

Ito ang aking lupang sinilangan, Ito ang tahanan ng aking lahi

Ako ay kanyang kinukupkop at tinutulungan

Upang maging malakas, maligaya at kapakipakinabang

Bilang ganti ay diringgin ko ang payo ng aking mga magulang

Susundin ko ang mga tuntunin ng aking paaralan

Tutuparin ko ang mga tungkulin ng isang mamamayang makabayan at masunurin sa batas

Paglilingkuran ko ang aking bayan nang walang pag-iimbot at nang buong katapatan

Sisikapin kong maging isang tunay na Pilipino sa isip, sa salita, at sa gawa.

New Version (2001-present)

The new version was updated since June 12, 2001 by President Gloria Macapagal-Arroyo.

Itaas po natin ang kanan kamay para sa Panunumpa sa Watawat ng Pilipinas:

Ating po sabay-sabay na bigkasin ang panunumpa:

Ako ay Pilipino, Buong katapatang nanunumpa

Sa watawat ng Pilipinas at sa bansang kanyang sinasagisag

Na may dangal, katarungan at kalayaan

Na pinakikilos ng sambayanang

Maka-Diyos, Maka-tao, Makakalikasan at Makabansa.

Bilang tanda ng ating pagka-Pilipino, ating bigkasin ang "Panatang Makabayan":
Iniibig ko ang Pilipinas, aking lupang sinilangan, tahanan ng aking lahi;
kinukupkop ako at tinutulungang maging malakas, masipag, at marangal.
Dahil mahal ko ang Pilipinas, diringgin ko ang payo ng aking magulang,
susundin ko ang tuntunin ng paaralan,
tutuparin ko ang tungkulin ng mamamayang makabayan;
naglilingkod, nag-aaral, at nagdarasal nang buong katapatan.
laalay ko ang aking buhay, pangarap, pagsisikap sa bansang Pilipinas.
Isabuhay natin ang pagiging Makabayang Pilipino, sa isip, sa salita at sa gawa.

oo, yung "japan video topics"...i liked watching those mini-docus...ilang years ding naging filler sa RPN 'yun...pero i also remember them being fillers as well on ABC back when they were still doing their test broadcasts (late 1991 until february '92, when they formally [re]opened)...

ibang program naman yung sa IBC na binigyan nung "anak TV seal". more on the environment 'ata ang mga topics nun...

Prayer to the Holy Souls in Purgatory

In a few moments, let us now pray the prayer of St. Gertrude for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The word of God says that pray for the faithful departed is a good and the noble act for the good hands.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Eternal Father, we offer you the most precious Blood of Your Divine Son, Jesus in union with the masses said throughout the world today for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory for Sinners everywhere, for Sinners in the Universal Church those in my own Home and within my family, Amen.

Please join us everyday for this offering of love for our faithful departed.

Bilang tanda ng ating pagka-Pilipino, ating bigkasin ang "Panatang Makabayan":

Iniibig ko ang Pilipinas, aking lupang sinilangan, tahanan ng aking lahi;
kinukupkop ako at tinutulungang maging malakas, masipag, at marangal.
Dahil mahal ko ang Pilipinas, diringgin ko ang payo ng aking magulang,
susundin ko ang tuntunin ng paaralan,

tutuparin ko ang tungkulin ng mamamayang makabayan;
naglilingkod, nag-aaral, at nagdarasal nang buong katapatan.
laalay ko ang aking buhay, pangarap, pagsisikap sa bansang Pilipinas.

Isabuhay natin ang pagiging Makabayang Pilipino, sa isip, sa salita at sa gawa.

Isang Australian film ang ipinalabas noong 1988 at pinalabas din sa ABS-CBN several years ago habang ginugunita ang Semana Santa, ang "A DANGEROUS LIFE", kung saan nakasentro ang storya sa mga huling taon ng rehimeng Marcos, mula sa pagkakapaslang kay Senador Ninoy Aquino noong 1983 hanggang sa makasaysayang Edsa People Power Revolution noong 1986... bida sa pelikulang yun, na unang pinalabas sa telebisyon sa ibang bansa bilang mini-series na tumagal ng 6 oras, si Gary Busey, bilang isang "reporter" na nasa gitna ng mga pangyayari sa bansa noong panahong yun...

...pero mas naging pamilyar tayo sa mga aktor at aktres mula sa atin sa Pilipinas na gumanap na mga prominenteng karakter sa pelikulang yun, gaya nina Ms. Laurice Guillen bilang si Pangulong Cory Aquino, Ms. Tessie Tomas bilang si Imelda Marcos, ang yumaong Ruben Rustia bilang Pangulong Marcos, yumaong Ray Ventura bilang Fidel V. Ramos, Joonee gamboa bilang Juan Ponce Enrile, yumaong Rolando Tinio bilang Jaime Cardinal Sin, yumaong Johnny Delgado bilang Lt. Col. "Red" Kapunan, Rez Cortez bilang Col. Gringo Honasan, at marami pang iba... kasama din sa pelikulang yun sina Ms. Dina Bonnevie, Spanky Manikan, Jaime Fabregas, at Roy Alvarez!!!

12 June 2013 Scenario

The Centennial of Philippine Independence

At 6:00 a.m., all cities and municipalities will hold DAYANAS of brass bands, as they were held on June 12, 1898.

At exactly 7:00 a.m., there will be simultaneous thanksgiving masses and services in all churches of all denomination nationwide.

As s customary practice, His Excellency President Benigno S. Aquino III, will preside over the flag-raising ceremonies at the Aguinaldo Shrine in Kawit, Cavite also at 7:00 in the morning. Simultaneous flag-raising ceremonies will be held at all historical shrines.

Starting at 9:00 a.m., Departments of National Defense and the Interior and Local Government, in cooperation with the Metro Manila Development Authority, will spearhead appropriate activities prior to the Centennial parade.

These activities may vary from sky-diving exhibitions to regattas by the bay.

At the Malacanang Palace, the President will host the traditional Vin d' Honneur at 11:00 in the morning.

Likewise, Provincial Governors and City Mayors all over the country will hold their special Thanksgiving Lunch at their respective Capitols for their constituents.

The Department of Tourism, in tandem with the Hotel and Restaurants Association of the Philippines, will host a special 3-day Philippine Centennial Food Festival at the Rizal Park. The Festival will feature regional dishes and other gastronomic delights from provinces such as Bulacan, Cavite, Laguna, Ilocos Region, among others.

The highlight of the Independence Day Celebration is the Philippine Centennial Parade at the Quirino Grandstand at 3:00 p.m.

The pre-parade activities starting with a hundred people with Tambuli and another hundred in tribal costumes playing drums, will signal the start of the Parade, with 50 Babaylanes (Catalonans) chanting prayers to drive away evil spirits - also a ritual of peace and thanksgiving.

Another batch of Tambuli & horn players will be at the Grandstand area to help amplify the sound of the Tambuli and shell horns.

A different kind of Military Parade will be witnessed by the public prior to the Centennial Parade.

The Military component will feature the best of the Philippines' Armed Forces. The participating contingents will be wearing new gala uniforms and will execute fancy drills and formations during the parade at selected areas, specially in front of the Quirino Grandstand.

At exactly 4:10 p.m., the June 12, 1989 scenario at Kawit, Cavite will be re-enacted, focusing on the replica of the old house of Gen. Emilio Aguinaldo, a three-dimension structure located opposite the Granstand. An actor playing the role of Ambrosio Rianzares Bautista will read excerpts form the Declaration of Independence. An actor playing Artemio "El Vibora" Ricarte will explain the symbols of the Philippine flag, and an actor playing the role of Gen. Emilio

Aguinaldo will wave the flag while the crowd shouts "Mabuhay and Kalayaan".

Then, the Banda Matanda of San Francisco de Malabon (now Gen. Trias) will play the tune of Marcha Magdalo, the anthem played after the declaration of independence.

After reading the declaration, a Philippine Flag will be given to President Aquino. The President will wave the Philippine Flag at the Grandstand. As the President waves the flag, white doves will be released, bells will be tolled, and fireworks will be lit to signal the band to play the Philippine National Anthem.

A thousand-voice choir will sing the anthem accompanied by the Philippine Philharmonic Orchestra.

The President then delivers his centennial speech. Following his speech, a big Philippine Flag --- 100 feet in size --- with giant balloons tied to it will be released.

After the giant balloons are released, representatives of countries that had consular relations with Spanish Philippines will lead the march in the Family of Nations wearing appropriate costumes and waving their respective colors.

The Grand Centennial Parade starts at 5:00 p.m. up to 7:30 p.m. Immediately after, the people will witness massive fireworks display and participate in the revelry lasting up to the early hours of the morning.

The Philippine Deposit Insurance Corporation (PDIC) is celebrating its 50th Anniversary on June 22, 2013. The PDIC, an attached agency of the Department of Finance, is mandated as state deposit insurer to provide deposit insurance coverage of a maximum of P500,000. As co-regulator of banks, it works with the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) in strengthening the banking system. As statutory receiver, it takes over closed banks and administers their assets and records upon order of the BSP Monetary Board.

Banks are placed under PDIC receivership when they become insolvent, are undercapitalized, or when they engage in unsound banking practices that place depositors' money at risk. The PDIC covers payments for deposits placed in closed banks using the Deposit Insurance Fund.

The PDIC was created on June 22, 1963, by Republic Act 3591 to "promote and safeguard the interests of the depositing public by way of permanent and continuing insurance coverage on all insured deposits." RA 3591 was amended by RA 9302 signed on April 29, 2009, increasing the maximum deposit insurance coverage to R500,000, and ensuring that the PDIC remains financially and institutionally strong to fulfill its mandates.

As part of its corporate responsibility, the PDIC conducts the "Be A Wise Saver" campaign where it advises depositors to: Choose their bank well and know the owners behind it; understand the bank products well and be well informed as to the service fees; keep their bank records updated; and transact only with authorized bank representatives inside the bank's premises, never outside.

We congratulate the Department of Finance headed by Secretary Cesar V. Purisima, the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas led by Governor Amando M. Tetangco Jr., and the Philippine Deposit Insurance Corporation headed by President and Chief Executive Officer Valentin A. Araneta, Examination and Resolution Sector Executive Vice President Imelda S. Singzon, and Receivership and Liquidation Sector Executive Vice President Cristina Q. Orbeta, its Board of Directors, other Officers and Personnel in their observance of its 50th Founding Anniversary. CONGRATULATIONS AND MABUHAY!

Sambuhay Missalette and Sunday TV Mass

A Pastoral Service of Pauline Priests and Brothers, SAMBUHAY is a liturgical resource material aimed to help Pastors and Ministers of the Word in their weekly preparations for the Sunday and Weekday Eucharist, and the Church faithful in their active participation in the Sunday and Weekday Mass.

Aside from the Sacramentary Prayers and Lectionary Readings for the Sunday Mass, each weekly 4-page issue contains: a one-page front article on the Gospel; short introductions for the Mass proper, for each of the Mass readings; Gospel-based "Prayers of the Faithful" that also integrate themes suggested by local church; a boxed article on a highlighted word or phrase from the Sunday Gospel.

There are Different Editions of SAMBUHAY: English Edition (started on July 5, 1987 with the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A); Tagalog Edition (started on July 5, 1987 with the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A); Hiligaynon Edition (started on January 1, 2000 with the Solemn Feast of Mary, Mother of God); the First Friday Edition (started on January 2, 1998 with the liturgy of "January 2-before Epiphany").

The Philippine Missalette was inspired by Sunday mass guides published by Pauline priests and brothers in other places: "La Domenica" in Italy, "El Domingo" in South America. The Philippine project was established during the term of Fr. Apolinar Castor as SSP Regional Superior. He assigned Fr. Domie Guzman as Founding Editor. Fr. Guzman was then yet a senior student in Theology at the Loyola School of Theology, Ateneo de Manila University.

The name SAMBUHAY was coined by Fr. Domie Guzman in consultation with Msgr. Sabino Vengco, a diocesan priest who specialized in Liturgy. He was a professor of Fr. Guzman, and is a good friend and collaborator of the Paulines in the Philippines. In fact, he has published a good number of books, VCDs and DVDs with ST PAULS.

Worship (SAMBA) and Life (BUHAY). This is the editorial line of our Pauline Philippine Missalette: with the Gospel reflections, Liturgical introductions and notes, and contextualized "Prayers of the Faithful"... we want to contribute in making the Sunday Eucharist the source and summit of the daily Christian life of our partners-in-mission, that is, the pastors and faithful who use our publication.

Pauline Priests and Brothers who have served as editors of SAMBUHAY are: Fr. Domie Guzman, Fr. Tim Melliza, Fr. Gil Alinsangan, Fr. Cris Cellan, Fr. Ramil Tapang, Fr. Joven Lagdamen, Fr. Restie de la Peña, Fr. Apolinar Castor Jr., Fr. Rollin Flores, Bro. Hansel Mapayo. A good number of Pauline priests, brothers, clerics, seminarians and sisters – as well as other collaborators from other religious congregations – and even lay persons make up the pool of resource writers for the reflections. Fr. Armand Tangi, a Filipino Pauline priest known for his paintings, is the designer of the original masthead of the Missalette.

SAMBUHAY Online service became available in 1999. The first uploaded issue of the Sunday missalette was for June 13, 1999, then the 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A). Fr. Ludovico Tacdoro Jr., pioneered this online edition of SAMBUHAY which has greatly helped Filipino chaplaincies abroad.

Fr. Paul Marquez said the program cost of around P1 billion came from the "widow's mite" (or small contributions) and from savings accumulated since Telenetwork Media Productions continues to renting stadiums and open grounds for its fellowship activities since 1987.

"Without the people knowing it, we spend P15-P20 million a month for the operational expenses of the SVD-MCFI, such as allowance for workers, rentals, and TV and radio air time" Fr. Bel San Luis said.

The Sunday TV Mass was first aired on July 5, 1987 with the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year A Live at the SM City North EDSA Entertainment Plaza in Quezon City at 7:00 A.M., as a co-production agreement between St. Pauls Media Pastoral Ministry for Sambuhay Missalette during its first issue, and during the years, the Mass had been holding its Eucharistic celebrations in such venues in Metro Manila as Quirino

Grandstand, Luneta Park, Cultural Center of the Philippines complex, Rizal Memorial Coliseum, Reclamation Area, Araneta Coliseum and Folk Arts Theater.

At present, the Sambuhay Missalette is published everyday in English and Tagalog, on 52 Sundays of 12 months (Sunday and Weekdays of Ordinary, Advent, Lent and Easter Time), and also published on several occasions such as:
